Dr. T. B. Beatty of Salt Lake, surgeon of the Union Pacific railway at that place, was in the city for a few hours yesterday. He came as far as Ogden with his wife and daughter, who have gone east in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of Mrs. Beatty's mother. A carload of thoroughbred race horses were seen at the Dee feed stables yesterday by a representative of THE HERALD. They were in charge of Mr. H. Jones of J. H. Holmes and C. E. Brainard returned from Idaho yesterday morning. The gentle-men stated to a HERALD representative yesterday that things are moving very nicely at Bancroft, the new station on the Los Angeles, Cal., a horseman of no little note. The racers are being transported to Brooklyn, N. Y. They will remain in the east during the summer and end up in California again after the racing season. In all there are twelve horses, and the mode of traveling is in a baggage car with six stall, on althoughts. six stalls on either side.

Among the number is a racer, Zaidivar,
